REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the claims are allowable over the prior art of record because the prior art fails to show or suggest, either singly or in combination thereof, a table supporting means that is hung from a loop such that it is vertically positioned, the supporting means extending through a vertical hole in a table holding means, the table holding means having a table rotatably secured thereto about a horizontal shaft. The table holding means also including a vertical bolt threadedly engaged therewith, the lower end of the bolt being in contact with a base portion of the table so as to maintain the table at a desired angle.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
